Marshall Will Make Statement On Poland Issue

Will Reveal U. S. Opposition
To Poland's Annexation
Of German Territory

EXPECT RUSSIA
WILL BE AROUSED

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, April 9.—Secretary of State Marshall will submit to the council of foreign ministers today a statement of the United States position toward former German territory now under the control of Poland.

It will clearly state the refusal of the United States government to recognize Poland's annexation of all that territory.

It also will recommend an Allied investigation to determine the extent to which Poland is using the territory, especially the great agricultural area.

It can be stated on high authority that the American delegation believes some of the land should be returned outright to Germany if an investigation shows Poland incapable of making full use of its agricultural resources.

For Outright Return
The attitude is for outright return of such land, and not for its internationalization or passing under United Nations control.

The United States declaration does believe, however, that there should be some Allied arrangement or agreement to govern distribution of Silesian coal.

For example, the Americans consider it imperative that Italy should be assured of Silesian coal, which was a main source of supply before the war.

The American policy-makers see two methods for assuring proper distribution of the coal.

One would be the establishment of an Allied commission appointed either by the United Nations or the Big Four to plan the mining and distribution of Silesian resources in accordance with Europe's reconstruction needs.

The second would be for Poland to make these resources, especially the coal, available for the reconstruction needs of Europe.

The adamant refusal of the United States to recognize as final the cession of Silesia and pre-war Germany's great eastern agricultural lands to Poland was expected to arouse the ire of both Russia and Poland.

Russia presented this land east of the Oder and Neisse rivers to Poland as compensation for the Soviet Union's acquisition of Polish eastern territories.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Strikes or no strikes there is one local industry that is booming right now—lawn rolling. At many homes about the city, this annual spring effort is under way.

According to orchard owners in this district the prospects at the present time seem good for a yield of fruit during the coming season.

Frank Bondi of East South street was proudly displaying a pheasant, which he captured in a parking lot near his home, this morning. The bird was quite tame, and was taken into the lobby of the post office, where it seemed unperturbed by its surroundings and did not attempt to fly away, it was stated.

Upon inquiry at a local nursery Tuesday Pa New found that the frost is not yet out of the ground enough to start spring digging of nursery stock—it may be a week or so yet. Husky looking field grown roses and fruit trees were potted and balled ready for planting though.

Cabinet Meets And Discusses Rising Prices

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, April 9.—(INS)—President Truman held a full-dress discussion of the nation's economy with his cabinet today, but no immediate government action to halt the rise of high prices was decided upon.

The chief executive met in special meeting with his official family and special economic advisers for an hour and 40 minutes.

The announced purpose of the meeting was to explore the problem of rising high prices. Afterward, however, the White House stated that "no conclusions were arrived at."

The cabinet heard discussions of the nation's economic situation by Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the president's economic advisory council, and by Marriner Eccles, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, and Budget Director Webb.

Three 'Dangerous' Patients Escape At Valley Forge

Abduct Unarmed M.P. And Force Him To Accompany Them To Philadelphia

PHOENIXVILLE, Pa., April 9.—(INS)—An intensive search was pressed today for three "dangerous" mentally-ill patients who escaped from Valley Forge General Hospital, abducted an unarmed military policeman and forced him to accompany them to Philadelphia.

The patients were identified by Army authorities at the hospital as John Zolnick, Nathaniel Green and Charles Frizzi. Two other patients also attempted to escape, but were captured as they walked out a back door of their building, authorities said.

Had Duplicate Keys
Lt. Lewis Huggins, officer of the day, said the men escaped shortly after the lights were turned out for the night. They apparently had made duplicate keys to the wards, Huggins added, since all of the hospital keys were accounted for.

As they reached the highway, Sgt. John Freed, an MP off duty, drove by and recognized them by their hospital pajamas. He stopped to question them, he reported, and they overpowered him.

Two of the men held him while the third drove to Philadelphia, where they released him in the Germantown section, Freed told police.

NEW YORK, April 9.—(INS)—The Moscow radio today accused the United States of "permitting General Douglas MacArthur to run Japan like an American colony."

As heard by NBC, the Russian broadcast condemned American reparations policies in Japan. It termed them "contrary to the Moscow agreement" and cited Australian newspaper items supposedly to substantiate this charge.

Poland's Annexation Program Was Opposed By President Truman

By LEON PEARSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, April 9.—An authoritative source disclosed to International News Service today that President Truman took the lead at Potsdam in opposing Poland's annexation of 40 thousand square miles of prewar German territory.

The American Chief Executive made his position amply clear in the July, 1945, negotiations with former British Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Generalissimo Stalin.

Mr. Truman's opposition was said to have been so strong that Stalin offered to drop the matter for consideration by the deputies at a later date.

Churchill, however, was said to have insisted on an immediate decision about Germany's eastern frontier. As a result, it finally was agreed that German territory east of the Oder and Neisse rivers would be placed under Polish administration.

The United States Government never considered the Potsdam agreement as a final settlement of Germany's eastern boundary.

It has been learned recently, how-

Mystery Surrounding Deaths
Of New York's Hermits
Not Yet Cleared Up

NEW YORK, April 9.—(INS)—The mystery surrounding the deaths of Homer and Langley Collyer who had lived as hermits in their Fifth avenue junk-filled house for nearly forty years was only partially dispelled today by the discovery of Langley's body.

Police found the body of the 61-year-old recluse on the second floor of the house. Apparently he had died about three weeks ago and before his blind and partially paralyzed brother had died.

Langley was found in a tunnel which he had constructed in the debris filled house. His body was crushed by one of the "booby traps" he had installed to protect him and his brother from robbers and intruders.

Major Mystery
Homer's body was discovered March 21, and one of the major mysteries was who phoned police that there was "a dead man at 2078 Fifth avenue" (the Collyer home).

Police had little trouble finding the emaciated body of Homer. He was found in a small "pocket" in the second floor of the house surrounded by bales of paper and debris.

The search for Langley was a different matter. Police were convinced Langley's body would be found in the house and with the authority of the public prosecutor.

Baseball Leaders In Orders
Issued Today

(BULLETIN)

CINCINNATI, April 9.—(INS)—Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler suspended Leo "Lippy" Durocher, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, from organized baseball for the entire 1947 season today.

In addition, he suspended Charley Dressen, coach of the New York Yankees for 30 days, fined the Dodgers and Yankees $2000 each, ordered suspension of Durocher's newspaper column and fined his ghost writer and administered a severe dressing down to Larry MacPhail, owner of the Yankees.

"Detrimental To Baseball"
Chandler ruled that Brooklyn manager, cited of heated controversy for many months, had been guilty of conduct "detrimental to baseball."

The commissioner declared: "Durocher has not measured up to the standards expected or required of the managers of our baseball teams."

"As a result of the accumulation of unpleasant incidents in which he has been involved which the commissioner construes as detrimental to baseball, Manager Durocher is hereby suspended from participating in pro ball for the 1947 season."

DOUBLE SUICIDE THEORY DROPPED

TOKYO, April 9.—(INS)—U. S. Army investigators discarded today the double suicide theory in the recent poison deaths of a young American flying officer and a Japanese girl. They expressed belief the girl had killed the flyer and then committed suicide.

International News Service learned that the murder-suicide theory was set forth in a report given by Army Air Force authorities who delved into the tragic "Madame Butterfly" case.

The bodies of the poison victims—Lieut. Robert Wilson, 23, of Plymouth, Mass., and 18-year-old Kiyoko Takada—were found in a drab off-limits Tachikawa hotel March 14.

At first it was believed the deaths resulted from a suicide pact. As they proceeded in their inquiry, however, the Air Force investigators uncovered conflicting reports.

Inspection Speedup Boosts Coal Output

PITTSBURGH, April 9.—(INS)—A speedup in the government's inspection of the nation's soft coal mines today was expected to boost production to more than 50 per cent of the normal daily output.

The Coal Mine Administration field office in Pittsburgh disclosed that since the Krug "unsafe" list was issued last week 1,404 bituminous pits had been certified as safe and 65,000 UMW miners were at work in 711 of the pits.

CMA officials predicted more than a million tons of coal will be mined. They said it was due to the exhilarated checkups and UMW President John L. Lewis' instructions to his 400,000 miners to resume operations as rapidly as the mines are declared safe.

The daily normal bituminous production is about two million tons. Across the nation 108,000 miners were working in 1370 pits. Many of these are not union collieries.

West Virginia led the bituminous producing states in the back-to-work movement. State Mine Commissioner Arch Alexander said 31,000 miners out of 107,000 were on the job yesterday. He added:

"I think you'll find twice as many today. They are going back as fast as federal inspectors okay the mines."

WASHINGTON, April 9.—(INS)—Edgar L. Warren, government labor conciliator, told congress today "I am hopeful of an early end to the telephone strike, particularly in the case of long lines service."

Warren made the statement before a senate appropriations subcommittee as settlement of the long distance phase of the nationwide walkout setting a pattern for the entire industry, was reported near completion.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—(INS)—A night-long bargaining session between AT&T and its long-lines union ended early today without agreement and union leaders said the national telephone strike would continue at least one more day.

Government, company and union representatives indicated, however, that considerable progress was made. They hinted that a settlement in the long lines dispute might be possible later in the day.

The government was concentrating all its efforts on "cracking" the communications tieup through an agreement covering 20,000 long distance employees in 42 states. Last year a long lines settlement formed the pattern for adjusting the entire AT&T and Bell system dispute.

Resume Parley
The AT&T-long lines talks were resumed late this morning. They recessed at 4 a. m. today after meeting with only time today for meals since 11 o'clock Tuesday morning.

When the parley broke up, reporters asked Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson whether an agreement had been obtained. He replied:

"No, but we have the printing presses going."

begin removing over 100 tons of junk, debris and filth from the three-story house.

Found on Tuesday

Their work was rewarded late yesterday afternoon when police saw what looked like a human foot sticking out of one of the tunnels that Langley had dug through the debris. Langley had used the tunnel to enter and leave the little cubby hole where Homer had spent his days and nights.

The body was pinned between a wooden dresser and a cast-iron bookcase and hundreds of pounds of junk blocked the passage.

Dr. Thomas A. Gonzales, chief medical examiner, said an autopsy would be conducted today to determine cause and time of Langley's death. He said Langley could have been dead from two to four weeks.

The Collyer brothers retreated into the brownstone mansion 30 years ago. Although having a fortune of more than $100,000 they chose to live as hermits. Langley made expeditions to the corner delicatessen for food and made regular trips at night to collect thousands of pounds of junk which he stored in the house.

Before they retired from normal living Langley was a musician of promise and Homer an admirably lawyer. Fourteen pianos were found in the house along with numerous other musical instruments.

MAKE PROGRESS IN EFFORT TO END TELEPHONE STRIKE

Workers said "we could complete an agreement today if we get the right answers." The AUTW is the long line affiliate of the National Federation of Telephone Workers which called 300,000 phone employees away from their jobs last Monday.

Moran emphasized, however, that any agreement would have to be submitted to the AUTW executive board and the NPTW policy committee for approval.

Continue For Day

Moreover, Moran said, none of the 39 NPTW affiliates would end their strike until settlements were achieved for all.

"Then the strike is bound to continue at least one more day," a reporter observed.

Moran answered: "That's it to my way of thinking." G. S. Dring, assistant vice-president of AT&T, said the company had "offered several things" but had made "no offer on wages except as a matter of arbitration."

The NPTW unions are seeking $12 a week wage boost.

Dring was asked whether there was a "tentative" agreement between the parties. He replied that "I can't say that yet."

The AT&T official added: "You don't have an agreement until you get names on paper. We are closer than when we came in but there still are some important points to be settled."

Dring said he did not want to prophesy when asked whether the strike could be ended in 24 hours.

The Communist leader's message to the committee was similar in command and argument to statements made by other Communist leaders who previously refused to appear.

Dennis declared the authority of the committee is not defined, that it has "usurped police authority without any basis in law and has assumed the powers of a criminal court without regard to the obligations of the laws protection."

Robert Stripling, the committee's chief investigator, told the group that the reason Dennis refused to testify was because he was "engaged in a campaign to overthrow the government."

Cites Eisler Case

Stripling added he feared to testify because of this and cited a similar reluctance to testify by Gerhard Eisler, alleged number one Communist in the United States, and other key Communists.

The investigator said Dennis was guilty of contempt of Congress, which is punishable by one year imprisonment and $1,000 fine, and "the more serious crime of conspiracy to commit contempt of Congress which is punishable by two years imprisonment and $10,000 fine."

Stripling recommended to the committee that Attorney General Clark be asked to prosecute Dennis on the more serious charge.

Louis J. Russell, a committee investigator, testified that Dennis' real name was Francis Eugene Waldron.

MARSHALL WILL MAKE STATEMENT ON POLAND ISSUE

Big Three recognized this deal at Potsdam, but U. S. Secretary of State Marshall—like his predecessor James F. Byrnes—will maintain the U. S. agreed only to placing the eastern German lands under Polish administration pending a final peace settlement with Germany.

Though this is likely to irritate Poland, what probably will irritate the Russian sizzle with anger is the American plan to internationalize part of the Polish-held territory and move a couple million Germans back into it.

This plan is based on the American government's conviction that Poland is incapable of making full use of the resources in one of the most productive parts of Europe, whereas Germany now has more people than land.

It also is feared Germany never would become reconciled to complete loss of this territory, and therefore it would remain one of the danger spots of Europe.

GREAT AND SMALL PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO FORD

tion announced that not a wheel in an automotive plant in the nation will turn at 2:30 tomorrow, when funeral rites begin.

He said length of the shutdown will be left up to individual companies, but requested other industries and private motorists, bus and truck operators to join the tribute.

Ford plants throughout the world flew flags at half mast, under orders from young president Henry Ford II, 30-year-old grandson of the father of the mass production system.

Ford ships at sea also were in mourning, and activity aboard them and in Ford plants will halt for 24 hours tomorrow.

Messages of sympathy from throughout the world continued to pour in on Mrs. Ford and the Ford family. Heads of states and humble citizens, union officials and members, sent their condolences.

THE THREAT TO PENNSYLVANIA'S TELEPHONE SERVICE

The leaders of the National Federation of Telephone Workers are attempting to disrupt Pennsylvania's telephone service, as part of a nation-wide campaign. Their aim is to force acceptance of their demands for negotiation of wages and working conditions on a national basis regardless of conditions and considerations in any State.

None of the four Unions representing the employees of our Company has seen fit to join the National Federation of Telephone Workers.

None of our Unions is on strike.

Our employees want to go to work and provide the service the people of Pennsylvania need.

Long Lines and Western Electric Company Unions, which are affiliated with the National Federation of Telephone Workers have put picket lines around our buildings in an attempt to discourage our employees from reporting for duty.

There are no employees of this Company on these picket lines.

Most of our employees in the State have recognized that the public's interests are paramount and have refused to let picket lines of other Unions stop them from reporting for duty.

We are appealing to the others, who have failed to come to work because of picket lines of employees of other Companies, to follow the example of the great majority of their fellow-workers.

We—and the other Companies in the Bell System—are doing everything possible to restore normal telephone service.

Sees Danger In Wallace's Visit

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Before he left for England, emissaries of Henry Wallace solicited from members of Congress signatures to a letter of greeting to be presented by Wallace to members of Britain's Labor party. This was intended to be a fraternal gesture from the Left Wing of the American Congress to the Left Wing of the British Parliament.

The letter was passed around at a meeting of liberal and pro-labor Congressmen by C. B. Baldwin, Baldwin, former head of the Farm Security Administration and one of Wallace's proteges in the Department of Agriculture, left the movement to go with the CIO's Political Action Committee. Later he moved over to the Progressive Citizens of America, for whom Wallace has several times spoken at mass rallies in New York.

Reluctant To Sign
Some of the Congressmen at the meeting were reluctant to sign the letter. It seemed to make Wallace their spokesman on his European tour.

The signers were for the most part those who have come to agree with Wallace in opposing the program of aid for Greece and Turkey. Opposition to the "Truman Doctrine" has become the core of the "Wallace Doctrine."

One of the signers was Sen. Glen H. Taylor of Idaho. On the final roll call, Taylor's vote is almost certain to be one of those cast against the program for Greece and Turkey. Even as brought out of the Foreign Relations Committee, the Vandenberg amendment, Taylor doesn't like it. He talks about the dangers of by-passing the United Nations.

Pepper Signer
Another signer was Sen. Claude Pepper of Florida. Pepper will vote for all amendments eliminating military aid.

STATES SHOW THE TREND

A late indication of the trend toward labor legislation is noted in the enactment by the State of Louisiana of a so-called "Little Case" bill. The measure was passed by a substantial margin in the legislature and has been signed by Governor "Jimmy" Davis. Its general features are similar to those of the federal Case bill, passed by Congress and vetoed by President Truman.

The Louisiana law makes unions mutually responsible with employers for fulfillment of contracts. It bars "violence or threats" in labor disputes and prohibits unions from conspiring "in restraint of trade." Direct boycotts in connection with strikes also are prohibited. A "strike" is defined as a walk-out of (Continued on Next Page)

ENJOY YOUR YOUTH
"I'm twenty-two and am considered 'settled' by both my friends and my mother simply because I like to dress conservatively and I thoroughly enjoy my own company. I never feel the need of male or female companionship. I don't like movies, parties or other so-called youthful pastimes. How can I convince my friends that I am not dying of boredom—that I like to be different from rowdy, young groups and that I don't care for amusement, that I am perfectly contented just as I am?"

Answer: You are suffering from an overdose of smugness. What you need is a prolonged silly period. The companionship of boys and girls of your own age with the natural gay, frivolous abandon of youth.

You are, indeed, to introspection for one of your age. You take yourself much too seriously. It is good for us all to have many friends and much companionship most of the time. We all like to have an occasional spate of solitude—but being alone too much causes moodiness, conceit and a superabundance of self-sufficiency.

It is natural for a girl of twenty-one to desire social life—dancing, movies and all the other gaieties so important to the young. Enjoy your youth while you have it. We all must have our fling some time. So my advice is to get yours out of your system while you are young and settle down to a dignified middle age when you get there. Sometimes people who are too serious in their youth develop frivolous natures during their maturity.

It is preferable to "act your age" whatever it is. You will be old and settled for a long, long time, so be young and gay while you have the opportunity.

Question: Does the groom lift the bride's veil after the ceremony or does she do this herself?
Answer: The maid-of-honor should lift the bride's veil when she hands her flowers back to her after the ceremony is over.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

TWO WELL-RAISED CHILDREN

I like to relay letters from parents who seem to be successful. You will enjoy this letter. I certainly did.

"Dear Dr. Myers: V. was 18, I 19 when we were married in 1939. However, we had been nearly independent of our families (just father, both mothers dead). My mother had been divorced, so from the first I knew I'd have to try twice as hard to make a success of marriage.

"When Bruce was only three months old I would play roughly with him. At first I'd object. Then I realized, 'V. won't hurt him and I'm nervous, and I'd leave the room. Bruce is not afraid of anything to this day (6 years old now). One day he and his father were near a locomotive when it let off steam and frightened Bruce. V. watched his chance and took Bruce to watch trains, talk with engineers and the like. Bruce is no longer afraid.

A Homely Child
"Sylvia was born in 1941—very homely. I didn't like her but tried hard to make her pretty. She's now a beautiful curl-headed, almond-eyed little girl.

"Here are a few things Bruce and Sylvia do for themselves (and for us). They have dressed and undressed themselves since they were three. They set the bedroom and bathroom horribly messed—but they also clean it up—under my supervision. Of course, they bathe themselves (except when I'm in a hurry and know that little folks have a tendency to neglect their ears).

"Bruce fries bacon and eggs for breakfast—he can also prepare grapefruit—all segments removed. He either scrambles the eggs or makes soft eggs with yolks intact. This morning I overslept and he had prepared breakfast for himself and sister.

Clears The Table
"Sylvia clears off table, puts food away, stacks plates in one place, silverware together, etc. (each with a groom) our very hard-to-sweep living room rug, then dusted the varnished parts. This because I have a sprained ankle.

"They spend much time playing good music on records, of which they have fifty. Neither Bruce nor Sylvia talked plainly until this year. V. and I said nothing but would repeat correctly their words slowly after them, not insisting they say them, though they always did. "We have answered their questions about sex and feel we have their confidence so that they won't talk of such things to others. They both have great respect for the clock and our word. V. is a professional musician. I am an amateur portrait artist. I saw the children's (Continued on Next Page)

Princess Catherine of Greece is getting a $40,000 dowry for her marriage. . . Spread over all us taxpayers it doesn't come to much.

But it would be a nice gesture if in return for aid to Greece we each got a piece of the wedding cake.

Anyhow we can now appreciate the desperate situation of the Greek people. . . It probably almost moves the parliament to give bread instead of babbles.

Somehow no matter how hungry people get there's always cake for royalty.

Anyhow the beauty culturists are doing something about our taxes. . . They want the treasury to grant each woman an $85 exemption for personal repairs.

Future beauties will be known as "the girl with the $85 look."

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

The rich man's son meets dangers worse Than those of parents poor of purse. For him are pitfalls, night and day, Disguised and decked as pleasures gay. For with his wishes all supplied, Temptation waits on every side.

The boy who comes to wealth at birth Is kept from many a test of worth. The urge of want, the spur of need, The strong ambition to succeed, The will to suffer hardships grim, All these his station keeps from him.

Since wearying tests denied him are, The ones he meets are harder far. Folly and recklessness and sin Will lie in wait to drag him in. If these he conquers—as he can— That boy has proved that he's a man. (Copyright, 1947, Edgar A. Guest)

Words Of Wisdom

The poorest way to face life is to face it with a sneer.—Theodore Roosevelt.

From Me To You

By MESEAL

Did you ever stop to think about your word power? The words that you use in every day conversation . . . the words that you use when addressing a group of business associates . . . or the words that you use when conversing with old friends . . . or the phrases that you employ when writing a letter. All your word power . . . it's an asset to your personality.

After you have thought about your vocabulary . . . try to think about the words that you are using today that you were not using five years ago. It is reported that there are several thousand more words in use today than there were five years ago . . . some of these words will be lost from the spoken word . . . some will continue and in a short time find their place in the dictionary. But why do we have all these new words? Another outcome of a world at war.

Some of the words that you have picked up these past five years are not suitable to use in mixed company . . . others are very expressive and will continue to find their place in your everyday conversation . . . Some words you will only use when talking to another person who has had similar experiences to your own . . . SNAFU . . . is a good example. Only service personnel can truly enjoy the full meaning of that coined word . . . But SNAFU will probably leave your tongue altogether one of these days.

In your geographical vocabulary you will find names that you never dreamed existed five years ago . . . yet when you check the old geography book you find that the islands in the South Pacific were there years and years ago . . . and today you are rolling the names of many of these far away places off your tongue just like you were saying . . . Please pass the salt and pepper.

Other words that have been in the dictionary for years and years . . . but we in the United States never used . . . find ourselves building long conversations around. SHORTAGES . . . PRIORITIES . . . RATION . . . COLLECTIVE . . . yes, take stock of yourself . . . judge your own word power.

Looking At Life

By ERIC BRANDEIS

—and now they want a "Grandmother's Day"!

A dear lady from Mitchell, Ind., has seriously proposed such a day to Congress and expects to have it made a legal holiday.

"We have Mother's Day and Father's Day," she said, "But grandmother is more important. She is the mother of the father and the mother. I know it is a great day when a person becomes a father or a mother, but I can tell you that the great thrill of a lifetime is when a mother becomes a grandmother."

Other bills before Congress are for a Pulaski Day; a Patriots' Day; a Shutes' Day; an American Indian Day; an Edison Day; a Marine Corps Day and a National Hearts' Day.

One of my columnist colleagues declared himself all in favor of lots and lots of such special days.

He is particularly anxious to have a clause inserted by Congress that on all those days schools, offices and factories are to be closed. Then, after a while, there will be only as many working days in the year as there are now Sundays, and life will be one long and lovely holiday.

So far I agree with him. I read an article by a psychologist a few days ago in which he declared that laziness is a perfectly natural human impulse and that nobody needs to be ashamed of being lazy.

This declaration was very much in contradiction to a recently published book by an eminent employment counselor in which she gives hundreds of shortcuts to success.

The psychologist's article interested me much more than the book, because, apparently, to be successful you have to work hard during the day and many hours into the night.

You have to be a good politician, a ready mixer and a polished gentleman or lady.

That sort of thing will never do for me, and maybe that is the reason why I have never become a business tycoon or a millionaire.

But back to Grandmother's Day. I am against it, just as I am against Mother's Day and Father's Day.

It seems ridiculous to me that Mother and Father and Grandmother have to be called to our minds one day out of the year and presented with flowers and neckties.

What decent son or daughter is there who does not remember and honor parents and grandparents every day in the year?

Do mothers and fathers confine their love for their children, their work and toil for them to one day alone? Does the mother of a child stop at five o'clock or neglect her duties on Saturday and Sunday? Certainly let us have Mother's Day and Father's Day and Grandmother's Day, too, but let us have those days 365 days in the year and 366 days in leap years.

I don't think the florists and haberdashers would lose anything by that.

COCOA FOR SUPPER
Cocoa is a pretty good kind of food. It is particularly rich in copper and iron.

Minerals are needed in our diet. We do not pay much attention to food minerals. We take a chance on getting much as we need.

Perhaps it would be better if people used more cocoa and less coffee.

Somehow it does not have the popular appeal which coffee has. Maybe it is because it does not have such a good smell.

Perhaps mother would make cocoa often if she didn't forget about it. She gets into the habit of putting on the coffee pot and does not think about cocoa.

Maybe cocoa is a little more messy too. Coffee grounds don't help the dish water much either.

Dad might get cocoa occasionally if he asked for it.

Great Game Of Politics

Significance Of Vote Is Emphasized

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The unanimous vote—13 to 0—by which the Senate Foreign Relations Committee approved the Administration program of aid to Greece and Turkey, was one of the most salutary and wholesome things that has happened since Mr. Truman announced his policy and made his request. It cleared the atmosphere just at the moment when it appeared about to become hopelessly murky and confused.

THE two principal things which that impressively solid vote has done cannot be to highly valued. First, it has practically ended all doubt about the final action of Congress. Regardless of the bitterness of the debate—and it will be bitter—it is reasonably certain that both branches will ratify the President's proposals—without undue delay and by an emphatic margin. Hardly anyone dissents from that view now. No such unanimity in a Senate committee of this importance on a matter so vital could possibly be achieved if it did not measurably reflect the sentiment of the Senate as a whole, and the country at large. In this case all the worth-while arguments have been made already. There is slight probability that anything can be said now that will change minds already made up.

UNDER the circumstances, to suggest that the Senate will override its committee is to suggest that it will act in an utterly unprecedented and illogical way. So far as the House is concerned, its Committee on Foreign Affairs, of which Representative Eaton is chairman, has been overwhelmingly favorable almost from the beginning, and the House is even more unlikely to reverse the action of one of its main committees than the Senate. For either Senate or House to do that would not only be to reject the majority leadership but the minority leaders as well. So, it can be set down that, barring some totally unforeseen event, the fight for the program in Congress is over. There will be some fireworks, of course. There will be some indiscreet and unwise things said. There will be a good deal of demagogic breast beating. But, after the roll has been called, all that will seem unimportant and be quickly forgotten.

THE other healthful thing which that solid Senate committee approval has done is to make it clear that, contrary to reports, the bipartisan foreign policy arrangement is still working smoothly and well. Recently there have been suggestions that for a number of reasons it had begun to bog down. One of these, it was said, was because both the White House and the State Department had failed to confer or advise Republican leaders before important steps in foreign policy were taken. An example is supposed to be the appointment of General Marshall as Secretary of State. On the other hand, Senator Vandenberg, it is stated, did not submit his important amendment nullifying the contention that the United States is proposing to act in this Greece-Turkey business independently of the United Nations.

A THIRD idea is that the Republicans are not as anxious to co-operate with the President now that he has gained such strength and popularity with the people as possibly to make him a somewhat formidable foe in 1948 instead of a rather pathetic setup. Nor, for much the same reasons, it is alleged, is Mr. Truman now quite as co-operative as he was. There is more plausibility in these arguments than soundness. Undoubtedly, in that there is talk of this kind in certain circles there is some basis for the suggestions. However, the reasons for rejecting them seem overwhelmingly clear and strong. In the first place, to accept them one has to agree that there is neither good will nor real patriotism on either side; that the men upon whom the bipartisan foreign policy rests are incredibly small, completely selfish and incurably narrow politicians—thoroughly contemptible men.

NO other view could be taken of them. In addition, deliberately to scuttle the present bipartisan policy, so concededly vital to the world, as well as to ourselves, would be a work of idiocy as well as of wickedness. For it could not possibly profit politically those responsible. Far more likely it would spell ruin for them. The truth is that our bipartisan foreign policy is strong and endurable because it largely depends on two men who want it to be that way. President Truman is one and Senator Arthur Vandenberg is the other. Of Senator Vandenberg's high-minded patriotism and wholehearted sincerity there has been abundant and convincing evidence in the last two years. Of Mr. Truman's personal good will and firm belief that bipartisan co-operation is essential to the national interests, there is not the least doubt in the world.

SO long as these two men are united in this conviction—and they are—so long will the bipartisan policy work well. They are both human, it is true. But neither is either silly or depraved. And they would have to be both if, for such despicable reasons, they should weaken in the face of a great national crisis. There is every reason to believe they can be depended upon. That solid Senate committee vote was extremely encouraging—despite the calamity howlers who see no hope for any one anywhere.

Soviet Russia's newly-enunciated championship of United Nations privileges with respect to international affairs as against any unilateral action by a single power to day brought to the surface the whole paradoxical picture of Moscow's relations with the world.

In his address to the United Nations security council condemning American aid to Greece as a move designed and calculated to undermine prestige of the world's peace organization, Andrei Gromyko spoke strictly within the letter of the law.

He cited the United Nations charter chapter and verse to emphasize his contention that trouble spots like Greece should be under jurisdiction of Lake Success and not of Washington.

Familiar Charge
He leveled the now familiar charge that Turkey is not entitled to American financial assistance because it did not side with the allied nations during the tortured years of World War II.

But he did not see fit to mention that Russia was a past master in the diplomatic art of unilateral action long before the United Nations ever existed.

And he made no offer to rescind, revoke or modify any of the single-handed manoeuvres by means of which the Soviet Union gained dominance over wide areas of Europe far beyond Russia's natural borders and which are not ever subject to investigation as exploited areas that someday themselves might menace the peace of the world.

In other words, Gromyko once again reduced the conflict between east and west to its fundamentals—the Russian way and the way of the west.

It has become comparatively easy to forget that there once were independent nations called Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia, for example.

New Republics
According to the Russian view, these have become new and independent republics merely lying within the Russian sphere of influence. There was no public announcement of Soviet investment in those Baltic lands as was made by President Truman when his policy for Greece and Turkey was formulated.

But it hardly could be denied that Soviet agents went into the Baltics in vast droves. They reformed the schools, they rewrote the textbooks, they suffied up the politicians and they left their mark (Continued on Next Page)

HOLLYWOOD, April 9.—(INS)—Crooner Frank Sinatra, who in his pre-singing days yearned to be a prize fighter, felled Lee Mortimer, the New York Daily Mirror's motion picture editor, with a single blow early today on the steps of Ciro's Sunset Strip Niter.

Mortimer filed a report with the Hollywood sheriff's substation and announced he would ask famed criminal lawyer Jerry Giesler to press a battery complaint against Sinatra.

Charges Attack
In his sheriff's report, Mortimer charged Sinatra struck him from behind on the side of the head as he was leaving the night club with the Chinese Chanteuse Kay Kina.

Mortimer said three men with Sinatra then pinioned him while Sinatra rained more blows on him as he lay helpless.

Examination at West Hollywood Emergency hospital showed Mortimer to be suffering from a swollen left ear, bruised cheek and wrenched wrist. X-Rays were ordered taken of the injuries.

Mortimer declared the medical report showed bruises on both wrists where he was held on the ground and that his wrist watch was smashed.

Attack Without Warning
Mortimer declared he was not even aware Sinatra was in the night club until he was struck.

The columnist said he had witnesses to support his assertion the attack was unprovoked and that Sinatra had struck him from behind, then pummeled him on the concrete floor while Sinatra's friends held him.

Mortimer said he was "just minding my own business when Sinatra struck me". Sinatra accused Mortimer, however, of insulting him.

Famous Taboos Part Of Course At This School

PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—(INS)—Bubble gum is taboo in most classrooms, but in one Philadelphia school it's an integral part of the curriculum.

Not only that, but riding a tricycle is just as important in this school as learning to read—and blowing out candles is as vital as the ABC's. The school is the Metropolitan Philadelphia Society for Crippled Children. There boys and girls handicapped from birth by some form of cerebral palsy are taught to talk and gain muscular control.

All the students, ranging in age from five to 14 years, are normal mentally, but their disabilities make it difficult for them to attend regular schools.

Bubble gum chewing and blowing candles helps them to learn to speak, since speech is a matter of exhaling breath.

Tricycle riding helps them overcome their muscular disabilities. The children learn rhythm through recital of their lessons to the accompaniment of the sharp clicks of a toy pistol.

ten percent or more of the employees belonging to the bargaining union.

Louisiana, with its oil, lumber and shipping, has become fairly well industrialized; it was a large producer of ships and other war materials during the war, and a considerable proportion of the shipbuilding survives. The enactment of the "Little Case" bill, providing popular approval of regulatory labor measures in such widely separated states as South Dakota, Massachusetts, Florida and Arkansas, must be construed as indicating a general demand for legislation placing reasonable responsibilities and reasonable limits of power on unions.

One of the surprising developments since the recent congressional election is the stiff attitude of Congress on the subject of labor legislation. While it is improbable that any extreme or merely "punitive" legislation will be enacted, the majority in both Houses undoubtedly reflect the sentiment of the bulk of their constituencies in their firm determination to pass some laws for the protection of the public interest in industrial disputes.

Gromyko's statement obviously was made on express orders from the Kremlin. It probably will have profound reverberations in Moscow, where the big four council of foreign ministers still is trying to hack its way through a wilderness of misunderstanding and ambitions. Whether it will mean another new and distinct cleavage between Russia and the west only time can tell.

Experience on more than one occasion has shown that the Russians are not adverse to negotiating once a smoldering complaint has been unloaded with the explosive force of a shotgun discharge. Gromyko has spoken—almost shouted—Russia case—but he has not closed the door to arbitration.

tary aid and otherwise limiting the program. But in the end he expects to vote for the program, since he feels that assistance to Greece is essential.

Wallace's visit to England at this time is a curious and somewhat dangerous experiment in international relations. He will find a considerable audience in Britain ready to applaud him for his attack on American "intervention" in Greece and for his championship of Russia's rights in her part of the world.

Only last week an important section of the British Labor Party came within a handful of votes of repudiating Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's foreign policy. England's powerful cooperative movement, at a convention in Wales, debated a resolution urging friendly relations with Soviet Russia and, by implication at least, less close ties with the United States. Only earnest, last-minute pleas by Labor Party leaders defeated the resolution.

Strongly Pacificist

The cooperative movement has always been strongly Pacificist. That Pacificism has carried over into the present period of troubled uncertainty. Those who advocated the anti-Bevin resolution believe that America's action in the Mediterranean increases the possibilities of an ultimate clash between the U. S. S. R. and the U. S. A.

They can be expected to agree with Wallace's strictures on "dollar diplomacy" and "American imperialism." But at the same time it is important that they understand Wallace's unique position in American political life.

Undoubtedly he speaks the hopes and fears of several million Americans who are deeply troubled over the direction of American foreign policy. As our politics are presently organized, however, these Americans have little or no opportunity to express their point of view. They have no way of getting behind their champion either in his native state of Iowa, which is conservative and Republican, or in his newly adopted residence of Westchester County (N. Y.), which is also conservative and Republican. In neither place could Wallace be elected to any public office.

Apart from those who are sincerely troubled over the Greek-Turkish proposal and what it may commit us to in the future, a tiny minority of American Communists and fellow travelers find Wallace an extremely useful front for their opposition to anything that may run counter to Soviet aims. They supply a lot of the background noise which builds up the "Wallace Doctrine."

The danger in Wallace's visit to England, it seems to me, is the emotionalism of his recent statements. From both the extreme right and the extreme left have come the cries of war and threat of war. The Truman policy is an effort toward peace and stability. To talk of it as though it were meant to be a gesture of force against Russia is a deep disservice.

Latin-America Policies Of U.S. To Be Surveyed

WASHINGTON, April 9.—(INS)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall today was expected to make a thorough resurvey of United States policy in Latin-America following his return from Moscow.

Marshall is expected to leave the Russian capital about April 15. Some observers have believed that there has been a crying need to straighten out the Latin-American problem, complicated by the attitude toward the regime of President Juan Peron in Argentina.

Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R) Mich. chairman of the foreign relations committee, whose voice is highly persuasive with the state department, has already indicated that he believes the "good neighbor" policy should be further emphasized in the future.

One Of First Problems

One of the first problems Marshall is expected to tackle is that of holding the Rio De Janeiro conference of foreign ministers, now delayed more than a year.

It was believed that he might seek to make this conference coincidental with the Bogota conference of American states, also due to be held this year. This meeting originally had been scheduled for 1946.

However, this problem was regarded as posing difficulties since combining the two in one capital might reflect on the prestige of the other.

Also awaiting Marshall's determination is the question whether the administration should resubmit its bill to standardize arms, equipment and training with the other 20 republics.

Testimony Of Doctors Differs

Opinions In Testimony At Trial In Norristown Murder Case Are Conflicting

NORRISTOWN, Pa., April 9.—(INS)—Conflicting opinions from two physicians today were before the jury in the trial of Gerald C. Wentzel for the slaying of Mrs. Miriam Green.

Mrs. Green, 28-year-old Pottstown divorcee, was found strangled to death in her apartment December 9. The state is seeking a first degree murder verdict against Wentzel, 37-year-old married demaker.

Dr. John C. Simpson, Montgomery county coroner's physician, testified Mrs. Green had been dead "12 to 14" hours when he examined her body. He conceded it was "possible" however, that she might have been dead 48 or 72 hours.

Dr. William Franck, Pottstown physician, who examined her body five hours earlier than Dr. Simpson, testified he believed Mrs. Green had been dead "not more than 12 hours."

Numerous witnesses were summoned yesterday, including Mrs. Rose Kohler, Pottstown hairdresser. She told the court that she and Edward Hartenstein, a Gilbertsville manufacturer, had gone on two double dates with Mrs. Green and Wentzel the week before the latter was slain.

Red Blood Cells Must Be Kept Up If You Want To Feel Alive

Thousands Now Regaining Old Time Pep, Vigor and Drive By Releasing Vibrant Energy To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Overwork, undue worry, and lack of certain foods often reduces the red-blood strength—and starved, weak, puny blood just hasn't the power to keep up your energy and drive.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the narrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

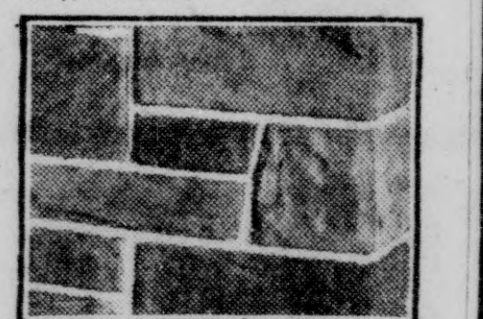

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

Cut Production At Youngstown Due To Coal Strike

PITTSBURGH, April 9.—(INS)—The Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation today announced a one-third cut in Bessemer steel production at its Youngstown, O., plants due to a soft coal shortage brought on by the UMW's "safety strike" holiday.

The spokesman for the U. S. Steel subsidiary said the cut meant a loss of 700 tons of Bessemer steel daily. No workers were immediately idled by the lost output.

At the same time, coal mine administration officials looked for an appreciable increase in bituminous production as thousands of miners streamed back into the pits. They predicted better than 50 per cent production for today.

King Christian's Condition Worse

COPENHAGEN, April 9.—(INS)—The condition of King Christian X of Denmark grew worse today and penicillin treatments were begun amid fears that pulmonary troubles might complicate the weakness of his heart.

Court officials said that the king still is greatly fatigued but that his strength is fairly good.

The 76-year-old king suffered a heart attack Sunday and yesterday his son, Crown Prince Frederik, was revealed to have been installed as regent during Christian's illness.

The heart attack was the second which the king has suffered in the last three months, and there were some fears that the next attack might be fatal.

POSSIBILITY OF STEEL STRIKE

NOW LOOMING

PITTSBURGH, April 9.—(INS)—Possibility of a nationwide steel strike loomed in Pittsburgh unless members of "Big-Steel" and the United Steel Workers reach contract agreements by April 30.

This was indicated today when the USW disclosed the union's executive board is scheduled to meet April 19 and 20 and the wage policy committee April 21, to discuss the present negotiations with the steel industry.

A high ranking official in the union said Steel Workers' President Philip Murray may call the wage-policy committee into session next week to make the decision.

Fish To Be Saved By Mayor's Action

Report received by the Lawrence County Sportsman's association last night that debris was being dumped in a Cascade street quarry in which fish had been stocked, received quick action from Mayor John F. Haven today, who in company with the association's committee, Andrew Dodds, James Cypher and Ed Fritz, visited the body of water.

The mayor issued an order to stop dumping the debris in the pond, and arrangements are being made to start a new dump opposite the present dump on Cascade street.

Donald Kent Sets New Solo Record

Donald L. Kent, R. D. 1, may be rightfully proud of his recent record of making his initial solo flight eight days after enrolling at Wilson Aviation at the New Castle airport.

Having had no previous flight time, Kent, a former member of the U. S. navy, enrolled in the private pilot course of the aviation school under the G. I. Bill of Rights. According to his flight instructor, "Star" Ferrell, Don was ready for his solo flight on Sunday, but unfavorable flying conditions made it necessary to postpone the occasion until Monday.

Daily, activity is increasing at the airport, with many more local men enrolling in the flying classes.

Work On New Airport To Be Resumed Again

After a lull of several months, due to the winter weather, work is to be resumed once more on New Castle's newest airport, to be known as Port Shenango on the New Castle-Ellwood City road, Frank Farone, owner and manager of the port, stated today.

As soon as the ground dries sufficiently, enabling the use of the bulldozer, one month's work will complete the grading of the runways which were started last Fall. The port's hangar, which is three-fourths completed, will be finished very shortly ready to store any planes that will be brought to the field.

Mr. Farone is planning on bringing to the Shenango Township site several war surplus planes in the near future. The planes, which will be owned by individuals, will be licensed by Mr. Farone.

Plans Furthered For Commander's Fete By Legion

National Commander Griffith And Department Officers Are Coming Here April 21

Plans for the annual national commander's banquet Monday evening, April 21, were furthered at the meeting of Perry S. Gaston Post, No. 343, American Legion, held in the social rooms of the post on Neshannock avenue Tuesday evening. Indications point to a record attendance at the event, the demand for tickets from the posts in the district being unusually heavy. Co-Chairman Clyde D. Badger and Ches C. Sweesy reported.

The usual plans will prevail for this gathering, which will bring legionnaires and their friends here from all over western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio.

There will be a banquet, followed by the speaking program when National Commander Griffith will address the gathering on the Legion's program, and a dance afterwards.

Chairman A. Wesley Mann, of the junior baseball committee, reported that this year's junior league will be bigger than ever, with around 200 youths playing in the league, and that a good representative team is expected to be fielded to enter district competition late in the summer.

The meeting last evening was concluded with the showing of the colored pictures of "Operation Crossroads" by Chief Quartermaster John P. Burrell, and Chief Gunner's Mate O. J. C. Johnson of the U. S. Navy recruiting station here, and the members enjoyed the pictures intensely. Lunch was served afterwards by the committee.

Krug's Judgment Is Under Attack

Pennsylvania Mines Secretary Accuses Him Of Not Using
'Good Judgment'

HARRISBURG, April 9.—(INS)—Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug was accused today by State Mines Secretary Richard Maize of not using "good judgment" in closing bituminous mines last week.

Maize reported that 73 of the 138 Pennsylvania soft coal pits closed by Krug had been inspected after the last federal scrutiny and had been "cleared" by the department.

He contended that last federal inspections of some of the closed mines had been made eight, 10 or 12 months ago and charged that the government waited until a "back-log" had accumulated and then closed 318 pits.

He cited the case of the Vesta No. 4 mine of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation at California, Pa., where two state inspections had been made after the last federal inspection in October.

"They found a dangerous condition six months ago and didn't close the mine down until last week," Maize said. "They've inspected it and say it's safe and that in my opinion shows that Krug did not show good judgment in closing down these mines."

Head Of Farrell Commerce Chamber Is Found Suicide

Continuous Union Meeting Is Called In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—(INS)—A "continuous" union meeting today threatened to take 1600 non-striking telephone workers away from their jobs.

Approximately 2400 phone workers affiliated with the NPTW are on strike in the Quaker City. The Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, however, reported that all service except long distance was normal.

The non-stop day-long meeting was called by William S. Leary, president of the non-striking Pennsylvania Federation of Telephone Workers, which is composed mainly of maintenance men.

Leary said the meeting would "bring out" all men who had not been kept from work by NPTW picket lines. The meeting also will inform members of progress in negotiations between his union and Bell company for a new contract, he added.

Senate Approves Recreation Bill, Flood Control Plan

HARRISBURG, April 9.—(INS)—Three administration bills to establish a flood control and recreation program today had the Senate's stamp of approval.

A fourth measure that would appropriate $10,000,000 to the department of forests and waters to finance the project was still in the Senate appropriations committee.

The upper chamber yesterday sent to the house for concurrence bills that would create flood control commission in the department to coordinate all phases of the program, provide for the installation of a flood forecasting and warning system and permit the department to clear stream channels and build dams and reservoirs to impound flood waters.

The measures were co-sponsored by Republican Sens. George B. Stevenson, Clinton, and John G. Snowden, Lycoming.

The commission would be authorized to carry out reforestation and purchase lands for flood control and recreation purposes. Forest and lake areas acquired for curbing a rush of swollen water could be utilized for recreation.

Many people believed in ancient times that citrus fruits were an antidote for poisons.

Held In Slaying Of Scranton Woman

SCRANTON, Pa., April 9.—(INS)—Alvin Miller, 28, was held by police today in connection with the shotgun death of Mrs. Stella Klevenkas, 47-year-old North Scranton tavern-keeper.

Police Chief Leo Ruddy said the woman was shot down while standing behind the bar of her establishment last midnight. He added that witnesses identified Miller as the killer. The suspect was arrested a short time later at the home of his sister not far from the tavern.

Three men were picked up as material witnesses.

Ruddy said he was told Miller walked into the taproom, pointed a gun at Mrs. Klevenkas and shouted "I get even with you." Charge from the gun entered her lungs and she died almost instantly.

Police records disclosed Miller was arrested three months ago for "trying to wreck the same tavern".

Remove Needle From Stomach Of Girl By Magnet

PITTSBURGH, April 9.—(INS)—A teen-age girl was reported well along the road to recovery today after medical and technical science cooperated to effect the removal of a needle from her stomach. The 16-year-old girl, a patient at the Western State Psychiatric hospital, swallowed the needle last Monday. She said she had placed it in her mouth and then attempted to talk to another patient. Physicians spotted the two-inch needle with an X-ray, but were unable to operate because the girl was a diabetic.

Construct Magnet
The physicians then laid their problem before technicians of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation. Within an hour, the technicians constructed a magnet—small enough for the girl to swallow—from aluminum, a new alloy. Under the guidance of surgeons at the University of Pittsburgh medical school, the girl swallowed the three-quarter inch magnet attached to a thread. The minute device attracted the needle and doctors withdrew both safely. Physicians said they believe the operation was the first of its kind.

Kiwanians Run Into Difficulty In Paper Collection

NEW WILMINGTON, April 9.—Members of the Kiwanis club had plenty of trouble in connection with their waste paper drive Monday evening.

A combination spring house cleaning period and a nice evening made householders conscious of the drive and about five tons of paper were netted.

When the truck headed for New Castle there was trouble ahead. The load shifted to the back on Furnace Hill, raising the front wheels high into the air.

Traffic was held up for almost an hour while the Kiwanians shifted the paper from one truck to another. Finally the load was lightened and the front wheels came down. The truck then backed up the hill and reports said it reached New Castle safely.

State Pardons Board To Meet On April 16-17

HARRISBURG, April 9.—(INS)—The state pardons board announced today it will meet at Harrisburg April 16 and 17 to hear 109 clemency appeals including two capital cases.

Included in the list were the appeals of David Brooks and Albert Wooding, 22-year-old Philadelphia Negroes, slated to be executed April 28 for the slaying in 1945 of a Quaker City hardware merchant in a holdup that netted $6. Joseph J. (Big Joe) Bruno, former Schuylkill county Republican leader serving a life term for participating in the 1934 election eve slaying of five Democratic paraders, will make his second bid for clemency.

Bruno's appeal in July, 1943, was rejected by the board after considering the case for 33 months.

Body Of Pittsburgh Man Is Found In River At Weirton

WEIRTON, W. Va., April 9.—(INS)—The discovery of the body of a Pittsburgh man in the Ohio river at Weirton, today led to suspicion of murder, police reported.

The body of Morris Chanock, 50, was found floating in the river near the Weirton Steel company, six weeks after his disappearance, police said. Identification was made by papers in the victim's pockets. The Hancock County, W. Va. sheriff's office reported that there were indications of "foul play" due to the battered condition of the head and face.

An autopsy and inquest were scheduled to determine the cause of death. Chanock's relatives said he disappeared February 24.

Long Sentence For Plot Hatcher

Eight To Sixteen Years Sentence
For Man Accused Of Plotting
Payroll Robbery

GREENSBURG, Pa., April 9.—(INS)—Thomas Jawarski of Penn township near Greensburg, accused of hatching a fantastic plot to blow up a payroll car near Scranton, Pa., today was sentenced to 8 to 16 years in Western Penitentiary.

Jawarski was charged on four counts of possession of explosives and receiving stolen goods. On one charge of possessing explosives he was sentenced to four to eight years. Two sentences of two to four years each were to follow the first, Judge Richard D. Laird decreed. A third sentence of two to four years was to run concurrently with the others.

Sgt. J. J. Conwell of the Pennsylvania State Police had charged Jawarski with possession of 12 quarts of nitro-glycerine, found on his farm. He said Jawarski and two others planned to use the explosive to blow up the payroll truck near Scranton more than two months ago.

Jawarski is a cousin of Paul Jawarski, leader of the "Flathead Gang" which terrorized Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio two decades ago. Paul Jawarski engineered the blowing up of a mine payroll car near Pittsburgh, at Coverdale, in 1926.

Thomas Jawarski was convicted of the charges on which he was sentenced Tuesday at the February term of court, less than two months after his arrest.

SEEKS TO DRIVE WEDGE INTO STATE PATRONAGE SYSTEM

HARRISBURG, April 9.—(INS)—House Minority Leader Hiram G. Andrews sought to drive a wedge into the patronage system governing appointments of state workers.

He sponsored a resolution which would make it unnecessary for professional personnel to obtain political sponsorship as a pre-requisite to state employment.

The resolution, which was sent to the house rules committee, called for the state government committee to list key jobs on the commonwealth payroll and then to petition Gov. James H. Duff to ignore political affiliations of applicants when making appointments.

Professional personnel would be retained solely on a merit basis, under Andrews' proposal.

Third U. P. Leads Again In County

East Bible School Is Leader With
Easter Sunday Attendance
Of 700

Last Sunday of the pre-Easter attendance campaign found 700 in attendance at the Third U. P. Bible school, which was the largest recorded attendance in the county once more. Classes overflowed their classrooms in some instances and had to conduct sessions in assembly rooms.

Inter-class contests took surprising turns at the last moment, and results showed that much effort on the part of membership committees had been done. Y. L. B. class took over the Men's class by 11.3 per cent. W. W. M. G. class lost to the Open Door class at the last minute by 14.9 per cent. Loyal Band class topped the Truth Seekers by 7.2 per cent. Queen Esther took over the S. B. Copeland class by 11.5 per cent, while the True Blues came through with 37.6 per cent over the Margaret Hamilton class.

Two classes were outstanding in the fact that each of the eight weeks saw a consistent gain in attendance. They are the Open Door class, taught by Calvin Atwell, and the True Blue class, taught by Mrs. Horace Allen.

Classes whose record showed 100 per cent last Sunday are: Primary department, Mrs. J. W. Rupert, Mrs. Walter Jessel, Mrs. C. Doran and Mrs. Thomas Coultas; Junior department, Mrs. David Aye and Miss Alma Lutz, and Intermediate-Junior Young People, Mrs. William Schoenfeld, Merritt Reynolds, Mrs. Scott Munnell and Elmer Kanagy. In the Adult department, Mrs. Horace Allen, Calvin Atwell and Mrs. Paul McGaffie.

Mrs. Coultas' class of boys in the Primary department won the cross country airplane race and received the award waiting at San Francisco for the group arriving first. In the Junior department the boys were ahead of the girls in the Great Lakes cruise. Mrs. Schoenfeld's class of girls in the Intermediate department was victorious over competitors in that division.

Contest figures and the eight weeks' averages are shown below:

	April 6 Avg.
Beginners department	80.0 54.3
Primary department	90.0 71.3
Junior department	100.0 79.0
Inter-Jr. Y. P.	96.7 70.1

W. W. M. G. class	224.0 148.8
Open Door class	363.1 163.7

REPORT 173 KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENTS SO FAR THIS YEAR

HARRISBURG, April 9.—(INS)—Rural highway accidents in Pennsylvania claimed the lives of 173 persons during the first three months of this year, it was reported today by State Police Commissioner C. M. Wilhelm.

Fatalities during the same period of 1946 totaled 269, he added. The decline was attributed to increasing safety consciousness among pedestrians and vehicle operators.

BOGUS AGENTS PROBED
PITTSBURGH, April 9.—(INS)—John L. Kettle, head of the secret service in Pittsburgh, today announced that his office was investigating bogus agents who have attempted to dupe Greensburg storekeepers.

Kettle said that two men representing themselves as secret service agents, and flashing a badge, have approached Greensburg storekeepers in a search for "counterfeit" currency. He said the men ask to inspect the cash register for fake money and offer to give a receipt for any bad currency they "confiscate".

He said that none of the storekeepers have fallen for the line.

What do you think railroads make?

The public thinks we make 15%

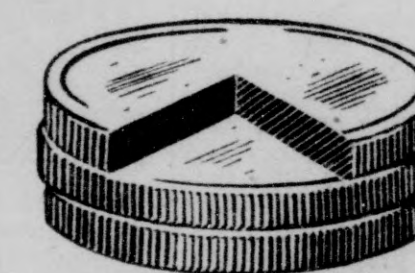

What do you think they should make?

The public thinks 10% would be fair

What are the facts?

Actually the railroads earned only 2 3/4% in 1946.

To provide the service you want, railroads need to earn at least 6%. But estimates indicate that even with the recent freight rate increase, the return for 1947 will be only about half that requirement.

Why it takes 6% to make the grade...

Impartial research polls show that, on the average, people think we make 15%. They also think a fair return would be 10%.

What We Make

But for the year 1946, with the biggest peacetime traffic in history, the railroads earned only... 2 3/4%. This is less than one-half the comparable earnings for other industries.

The reasons for this low return are not hard to find. Since 1939 railroad wages have increased 52 1/2% and the prices of fuel, materials and supplies have gone up 61 1/2%.

But freight rates have just recently been increased an average of only 17 1/2%—a year after the effective date of the last big wage increase.

What About This Year?

It is estimated that the return for 1947, even with the recent freight rate increase, will be only about half the 6% minimum return required to provide the improvements and service needed. This will be because of increased costs of materials and supplies; because certain wage increases granted in 1946 were in effect for only part of 1946 but will be in effect for all of 1947; because of increased special payroll taxes on railroads; and because of a decline in passenger business.

What Does This Mean To You?

The answer is "Plenty!" Your standard of living is the highest in the world because of MASS PRODUCTION. But mass production would not be possible without MASS TRANSPORTATION, which the railroads provide at low cost.

Why 6% Is Needed

The kind of service your standard of living requires takes a lot of money for new equipment and improvements. To carry out the post-war improvement program for better equipment, tracks, terminals and modern safety devices, a minimum return of 6% is needed.

So when the railroads make only 2 3/4 cents on each $1.00 of their net property investment, it concerns you.*

The funds for future new equipment and improvements must come from railroad earnings and also from investors. They will furnish money on reasonable terms only if they have confidence in the future earnings of the railroads.

You Have Another Stake In This

Even if you do not own any railroad stocks or bonds, insurance companies and savings banks do. So you still have a special interest in seeing that the railroads are allowed enough to do a good job... for you.

We are publishing this and other advertisements to talk with you at first hand about matters which are important to everybody.

*On total property investment, the railroads made only 2.19%.

New Castle Awarded District And State Baseball Tournaments

Johnson Bronze Baseball Park Is Chosen Site

Ralph H. Gardner Appointed Northwestern District Commissioner By Baseball Congress

Announcement was made today by the Johnson Bronze Employees Association of the acceptance of the district and state championship tournaments to be staged here this summer by the National Baseball Congress.

Clarence "Tex" Riffel, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania State Semi-pro baseball commissioner, has appointed Ralph H. Gardner, business manager for the Johnson Bronze Baseball Park, as district commissioner for the Northwest area.

Four counties will be involved in the district tournament to be started here either June 12 or 13, Gardner stated. The counties are Lawrence, Butler, Beaver and Mercer. Gardner would like to have 16 teams participate in the tournament. Teams north to Erie may enter the tournament, Gardner opines.

Entries for the state tournament will be received from all parts of the commonwealth. It is hoped to have at least 32 teams in the state tournament, to start here July 18. Gardner will direct the district tournament and Riffel the state tournament. The district winner qualifies for the state meet.

Field Work Progressing
Work on the new Johnson Bronze Employees baseball park is progressing nicely. The grading has practically been finished. The planting of grass seed is now in the preliminary stages.

The light standards will be erected very shortly, the holes having been dug and prepared sometime ago. It is likely that by the first of May the lights will have been installed. The fence and bleacher seats have been ordered. Seats for around 4,000 have been secured.

Plenty of Baseball
New Castle is going to see a lot of baseball played here this summer at the new baseball park. The finest attractions possible will be secured, Gardner announced. The Johnson Bronze team in the city baseball league will also utilize the park, for home games. Several city league teams will be seen in action at the new park.

All inquiries regarding the district tournament can be secured by getting in touch with Gardner at his home 403 East Wallace avenue or by calling 6046-J at Sterlings.

County Sportsmen Banquet Thursday

Hon. Judge W. Walter Braham Toastmaster, Attorney S. Dale Furst, Speaker

ASSOCIATION HOLDS MONTHLY MEETING

Plans have been completed for the annual banquet of the Lawrence County Sportsmen's association which will be held in the Cathedral, at 6:30 p. m. Thursday. President Judge W. Walter Braham will be toastmaster and Attorney S. Dale Furst, Jr., Williamsport, will be the principal spokesman. A steak dinner will be enjoyed.

The main spokesman is second vice president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen and also secretary of the Consolidated Sportsmen of Lycoming county. He is in close contact with problems which affect both hunters and fishermen, and no doubt his address will be interesting.

In addition to Mr. Furst's address, there will be displays of sports equipment. Many firms have arranged for the displays. Colored motion pictures of Alaska will be shown.

All this was decided last night at the monthly meeting of the association, over which President Braham presided in the Lawrence County courthouse.

Stock 385 Pheasants
President Coen reported stocking 50 cock birds and 50 hens, bought with association money, in the county. Game Protector William Overturn reported stocking common snipe birds, 50 cock birds and 25 hens.

The pheasants cost the Lawrence County association $375, plus $19.00, express.

The association voted to order from the game commission 500-five day old pheasants, chicks for rearing here. It will be decided later whether or not to hold over some of the birds, when reared for 1948 stocking.

A report was made that a Lehigh Portland Cement company quarry pond is being filled. Andrew Dodds, Ed. Fritz, Sports Editor of The News and James Cypher were appointed as an investigating committee relative to this.

Take Over Training Area
After some discussion the association voted to take over, if the price is right, the training area along west side of the Shenango at the Harbor, as a dog training area.

The site is well stocked with rabbits, having been recently surrendered when the Shenango Valley Beagle club procured a new training site near Volant.

The financial secretary, Hans Duto, reported 40,000 trap shells are on order and that plans are under way, according to Henry Rodgers, to conduct a trapshoot early next month at the association's farm.

Game Protector William Overturn delivered a welcome message when he stated the commission plans to stock 50 quail in the county. Some members spoke in favor of closing western Pennsylvania to quail shooting.

Banquet Plans Complete
The move was advocated by George Bollagert after President Coen reported that the closing of the season for grouse had resulted in an increase in grouse in Lawrence county.

The banquet committee, Henry Rodgers, Rev. D. L. Ferguson and Robert Lamore reported all plans complete for the banquet Thursday evening in the cathedral and a mammoth crowd is anticipated.

Following the meeting by courtesy of the Roley company, local concern motion pictures of the 1946 World Series, were enjoyed.

Softball League Has Ten Teams
There were ten teams at the softball session at the "Y" last night, and these teams will make up the 1947 league, it was announced by Rose P. Vignaro.

Plans were made for playing fields and umpires. Another meeting will be held next Tuesday.

Sports Fallacies
When a boxer is at the top of his ability, he is said to be at his peak. Usually in one fight he is better than he ever has been or can be again. Many fans assume, therefore, that at the time of his star bout the fighter is fully developed physically.

As a matter of fact, boxers sometimes grow in height and develop larger general proportions after they have begun to slip.

Joe Louis admits he is no longer the boxer who knocked out Max Schmeling in the first round of their 1938 bout. But since then Joe has added at least an inch to his reach, chest measurements, thighs, calves, waist, biceps, forearms, neck, wrists and ankles. His best fighting weight is 132 pounds over what it was in 1938.

UMPIRES TO MEET
All Lawrence county umpires are to have a meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the "Y". It was announced by Dal Hartman.

COUNTY LEAGUE MEETS TONIGHT

All team pilots in the Lawrence County League will gather tonight in the Sporting Goods store, N. Mercer street, to further plans for the 1947 season. Meeting has been scheduled for 8 p. m., league president Alec Samuels announced.

Secretary Jim Martin will offer a tentative schedule draft for approval and other important points pertinent to the opening of competition in May will be talked over.

City League To Meet Thursday

Hope To Have Full Turnout Of Managers Present, Meeting At 7:30 O'Clock

Hoping to have a full turnout of managers and officials, the city baseball league has scheduled a meeting for 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening at Carm's for the purpose of discussing the coming season.

The schedule committee will no doubt have a report to make, and also the rules and by-laws committee.

Considerable Interest
Considerable interest is being manifested this year in baseball here, with 16 teams in the city loop. There is plenty of work ahead for the managers and officials.

The league will open probably the second week in May, if the weather permits, and fields can be put in shape. Playing fields is a real problem here in New Castle.

Sports Fallacies
When a boxer is at the top of his ability, he is said to be at his peak. Usually in one fight he is better than he ever has been or can be again. Many fans assume, therefore, that at the time of his star bout the fighter is fully developed physically.

Pirates Defeat St. Louis Browns

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 9.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Pirates arrived in Birmingham today for the second game of three contests with the St. Louis Browns on their exhibition tour northward.

The Pirates held six victories over the Browns in 11 games after Bill Salkeld's pinch single and Chet Laabs' error in the eighth gave the Pittsburghers two runs for a 4-3 victory at Jacksonville yesterday.

Salkeld hit to right, scoring Ralph Kiner, and Laabs' throw bounced over Less Moss' head at the plate, bringing Frank Gustine in with the winning run.

Sons Of Italy Discuss Coming Athletic Events

Seventy-Five Turn Out For Meeting Tuesday; Frank Ross Outlines Program

Approximately 75 athletes turned out at the Sons of Italy sports meeting last evening to discuss plans for the coming season for softball, city league and American Legion league baseball and golf.

Athletics Chairman Frank Ross presided and gave a summary of the club's plan of promoting sports for its members.

He then introduced Chuck Scaglione who pledged his fullest cooperation to the teams as did Bill Ross, Adolph DeGennaro and "Dutch" Augustine, all of whom are lodge trustees.

Baseball-Softball
Nick Gennock, who will manage the baseball team, spoke briefly and stated that he will field a winning team this summer. Chuck Fazzone and "Salpini" Janacina also spoke on behalf of the baseball team.

Frankie Colella, who will manage the softball team, stated that this is "the" year for the Sons of Italy and the softball trophy will rest in the Sons of Italy club.

"Gaby" DeCaprio and Alfred DiMuccio also expressed their thoughts in behalf of the softball team.

Frank Ross, the sports committee and officers of the club were well pleased with the turnout at the meeting and the enthusiasm and interest in sports of those attending.

It was announced that as soon as their field is ready and weather permits, the teams will begin holding practice sessions.

CARNERA MEETS NEWMAN HERE

Former World's Heavyweight Boxing King, Now Wrestler, To Exhibit Here

Primo Carnera, also known as Da Preen, a big hulk of a man who once wore the world's heavyweight boxing championship, is scheduled to wrestle Lou Newman, heavyweight, in the Arena April 17. The match was consummated today by Matchmaker Tommy Leach of the Jefferson A. C. and Ed. Don George, of Buffalo.

Primo Carnera will grapple with Gene Bowman and Ed. Meske will tangle with Al Bozek in the other exhibitions.

This is not the first time Carnera earned his cakes grappling. Long before he was converted into a heavyweight boxer, he wrestled in Europe. A shrewd ringster espied the 265-pounder and decided Primo could earn lots more money exchanging punches. After a few days of whispered niceties Carnera agreed to box, came to the United States and was built into a big attraction.

He was so maneuvered that he got the opportunity to fight Jack Sharkey, June 22, 1933, in New York and Boston Jack, a former tar, was knocked out in the sixth round. Da Preen held the title one year and a week, or until he met Bax Baer, another big hulk of a bruiser.

Carnera put up a fight for 11 rounds, suffering 12 knockouts. Having a fractured ankle and being the recipient of grueling punishment, Referee Arthur Donovan stopped the fight.

Duquesne Stars Battle Pulaskis At Arena Tonight

Members Of Duquesne University Squad Will Be Here, For Arena Contest

New Castle's final "big time" basketball game of the 1946-47 season will be played at the Arena floor this evening at 8:30 o'clock, bringing together two great teams the K. Pulaski "Big Five," city-county champions and winners of four district tournaments against the famous Duquesne Stars from Duquesne University, and the Pittsburgh Ironmen.

In the nationally famous Duquesne lineup the fans will see Carmic, Barry, Lacy and Penzelik from the Chick Davies team that played and lost a tough one to the championship Utah University boys at Madison Square Garden, in the recent invitational meet, plus the addition of Stan Noska, Moe Becker and Andy Kasparik of the Pittsburgh Ironmen of the All-American basketball pro league.

Parade Of Stars
Opposing the famous Duquesne will be such well known local stars as Billy Andrews, Freddy Wimer, Stan Wasik, John Zukowsky, Vince Kelly, Eddie Strausbaugh, Joey Cooper, Pat Patterson, in addition to Chet Dembinski, the recent selection by the Tri-State coaches as the ultimate of centers in this district. Heddisson, Freddy Paine, Dean Nelson, and others, of the Westminster team.

Manager Al Gonet of the K. Pulaskis and his assistant Leo Evans will use the strongest possible lineup to try and upset the Duquesne Stars. The Pulaskis with 50 wins this year against seven defeats will be "out to win tonight."

Friday Game Off
The Friday game with the Washington Court Jesters has been cancelled. An effort is being made to select an All-Lawrence County Stars team to meet the Pulaskis in a final game here.

The Pulaskis have met and defeated some of the greatest teams in section of the country. The doors tonight will open at 7:30 o'clock for the sale of tickets.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

AL LANG field, built at a cost of $300,000, at St. Petersburg, Fla., was recently dedicated, with the St. Louis Cards defeating the New York Yankees, 10-5. The field is one of the most beautiful ball parks in America. The park was dedicated by Happy Chandler, baseball commissioner, who paid a deserved tribute to Al Lang, who, when introduced, called out Hans Wagner and Ed. Barrow, after which Uncle Al as Mr. Lang is known in St. Petersburg, thanked those who made the park possible. About everybody who is anybody in baseball attended the dedication, which was also attended by many other persons, among who was Mrs. Fred L. Rentz, widow of the late publisher, Fred L. Rentz. Mr. Lang and the late Mr. Rentz were very firm friends. . . . Ezzard Charles, Cincinnati, who knocked out Jimmie Blains, will defeat Erv Sarlin in Pittsburgh, Monday night. Ezzard has blasted his last 12 consecutive opponents and doesn't believe Sarlin will prove a jinx in his thirteenth attempt. . . . W. M. Roberts, member of the state board of fisheries, attended a sports function, Tuesday night at Charleroi. . . . Ev. Wilkins is hatching plans for a Canadian fishing trip. Herman Steinbrink, Fizzle Fazzone and John Mangino are going to Quebec.

Officials and managers of Lawrence County Baseball league will meet tonight at the Sporting Goods store, North Mercer street. Jim Martin will present a tentative schedule. No doubt some managers will submit contracts. . . . Chet Dembinski, Westminster center, has a right to smile today. He was the tri-state coaches unanimous choice for the "Dream" team. He led in scoring having turned in 355 points. . . . Jim Cook of Ramblers Rest, visited New Castle yesterday. He's awaiting the opening of trout season. . . . City Baseball league managers are docketed to meet at Carm's, West Washington street, Thursday night. . . . K-Pulaskis came through over the Lions in the last three minutes of their game on Washington floor, 37-34, thereby annexing the city-county floor toga. . . . Andrews, forward for Pulaski, annexed 14 points, as did F. Pitzer, forward for the Lions. Wimer, the other Pulaski forward, annexed a dozen points. McGary, center for the Lions, did likewise. . . . Paul DeCarbo, Lutton street, recited to Here & There, some salient points about the Dempsey-Firpo fight, which Dempsey won after being knocked from the ring. Paul's waiting to see Primo Carnera unlimber his holds April 17.

U. P. Presbytery Meets At Raccoon

Appoint Commission To Install Rev. W. F. Holmes Of Savannah, O., At Center U. P.

One of the most optimistic sessions of the United Presbyterian Presbytery of the Beaver Valley District took place Tuesday, when a good delegation of pastors met at the Raccoon, Pa., U. P. church for the regular all day meeting of the ministers.

Dr. C. M. Nesbit of Beaver, served as vice moderator during the day's business, when several important items were transacted. Appointments to the General Assembly were given out with an election of assembly delegates also taking place. The nominating committee to name a moderator for next year was appointed.

To Install Pastor
One of the important items of business transacted was the appointment of a commission to install Rev. W. F. Holmes, pastor of the Savannah, Ohio, U. P. church, who has been called to serve as pastor of the Center U. P. church. Members of the committee include: Rev. E. E. Minter, of Ellwood City; Rev. Lawrence Ayers of the Oak Grove U. P. church and Dr. J. Paul Graham, pastor of the Third U. P. church. M. E. Alexander was named as the lay member.

The next meeting of the Presbytery will involve a departure of procedure from the general manner in which the members have been meeting. In the past, the presbytery has been having morning and afternoon sessions, but in order that the elders may attend the meetings, the next Presbytery will be held in the afternoon and evening. Four Mile U. P. church in Beaver County will play host to the group at its meeting on June 24 when Rev. E. V. Clements, missionary to India who is home on furlough and residing at New Wilmington will be the speaker.

The group at the Tuesday meeting went emphatically on record as being opposed to the destruction of food stuffs, which could be used to feed the starving millions of Europe. The secretary was instructed to write the secretary of agriculture, Claude Anderson at Washington, voicing their protest.

School Tax To Be Increased In New Wilmington

NEW WILMINGTON, April 9.—An increase of five mills in the tax assessment for 1947-48 school year is proposed in the budget discussed at the regular meeting of the New Wilmington school board, Monday night.

The new assessment is expected to increase the revenues of the district by $3,000. The board decided that the increase from the former rate of 18 mills was necessary to defray operating expenses because of the increase in cost of all school supplies.

No salary increases are provided in the new budget which will be available to the public for inspection as soon as it is printed. After a period of three weeks, the budget will come before the board for final action.

THIRD WORLD WAR

LONDON, April 9.—(INS)—Henry Wallace, former U. S. Vice President, termed a third world war "inevitable" today unless there is bettering of Soviet-American relations.

At a news conference in London, where he arrived yesterday to begin a three-weeks European visit, Wallace said he had a great sense of urgency for drastically improving relations between the U. S. and the USSR.

He said the improvement should be within 90 days, but declined to explain why he set this time limit.

Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Jackson of Enon Valley have returned after spending the winter in Fort Myers, Florida.

Bank Holiday Proclamations Are Amended

WASHINGTON, April 9.—(INS)—President Truman issued a proclamation Tuesday amending the bank holiday proclamations of 1933, to exclude from their scope member banks of the Federal Reserve System.

The President said in his proclamation that "it is no longer necessary, or in the interest of government internal management for the secretary of the treasury to license the transaction of normal banking business."

Mr. Truman ordered amendment of the two bank holiday proclamations of March 6-9, 1933, and the executive order of March 10, 1943, "to exclude from their scope banking institutions which are members of the Federal Reserve System."

The Chief Executive included a proviso, however, that no banking institution shall pay out any gold coin, gold bullion, or gold certificates, except as authorized by the secretary of the treasury or to allow the withdrawal of any currency for hoarding.

Effective date of the proclamation was set as March 15.

Payroll Padders Given Sentences

Three Convicted Of Conspiracy To Defraud Government Are Penalized By Court

PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—(INS)—Three men convicted of conspiracy to defraud the government of between $25,000 and $32,000 by padding payrolls for ship repairs during wartime were sentenced to a year and a day each in a federal penitentiary today.

Those convicted and sentenced by U. S. District Judge J. Cullen Ganev were:

Robert L. Sadler, 38, (2010 Belmead avenue) South Ardmore, Pa., and John Keith Grant, 46, steel company executive, (Columbus road) Havertown, Pa., two of four partners in the Lucas and Sadler Welding Co., Philadelphia; and Joseph Koffley, 50, Philadelphia, former general manager of a now defunct manufacturing company.

Sidney Isaac Mann, 45, of (301 Hamilton street) Norristown, pleaded guilty and was let off with a suspended sentence of a year and a day and was placed under probation for one year. Mann became the government's star witness against the other three.

Before sentence was imposed, Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas J. Clary informed the court that he had received certified checks totaling $27,361 from Mann, Sadler and Grant in settlement of all civil claims the government might have against the Lucas and Sadler company.

Youth Leader At Rescue Mission
